“spouse” includes a person who is living with a man or woman as his wife or her husband;

“stepchild”. in relation to a claimant. means a child of his spouse or deceased spouse who is not his own child.

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, any person who, as a result of -

(a) any physical or mental disability,-

(b) any sickness or accident certified by an approved medical practitioner;

(c) abandonment by his spouse; or

(d) any sudden loss of employment which has lasted continuously for not less than 6 months, is temporarily or permanently incapable of earning adequately his livelihood and has insufficient means to support himself and his dependents, shall be qualified to claim social aid.

(2) A claimant shall-

(a) apply for social aid to the Minister in the prescribed manner;
(b) furnish, in support of his application, such information and documents as the Minister may require.

(3) Where the Minister is satisfied that a claimant is qualified to claim social aid under subsection (1), he may, subject to such conditions as he thinks fit to impose, grant to the claimant such amount of social aid as meets his requirements.

(4) For the purpose of this section-

(a) the requirements of a claimant shall be computed in the manner specified in Part I of the First Schedule;

(b) the resources of a claimant shall be determined by the Permanent Secretary in accordance with such criteria as may be prescribe

(5) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the social aid payable to a claimant shall be the amount by which the resources of the claimant fall short of his requirements after deducting from that amount any benefit or allowance received by the claimant under the National Pensions Act or the Family Allowance Act respectively.

(b) The social aid payable under paragraph (a) shall not be less than the amount specified in Part II of the Schedule.

4. Recovery.

(1) The Permanent Secretary may recover from the spouse of a claimant or any person who under any enactment is liable to maintain the claimant the amount of social aid paid to the claimant under section 3.

(2) In any proceedings under this section, the onus of proving that a person is unable or not liable to maintain a claimant shall lie on the person from whom the amount paid is sought to be recovered.

5. Committal order.*

(1) Where the Permanent Secretary is satisfied that a child-

(a) is ill-treated or neglected by his parent;

(b) has been abandoned by his parent; or

(c) is destitute and is in need of social aid,

he may apply to the District Magistrate for an order to commit that child to an institution established under section 1

(2) Where the District Magistrate makes an order under subsection (1), the order shall specify the period during which a child may be committed to an institution and may be varied at the instance of any interested party.
(3) Subject to subsection (4) the Permanent Secretary may provide for the care and protection of any child committed to an institution under Subsection (1).

(4) Any expenses incurred for the care and protection of a child who has been committed to an institution under subsection (1) may be recovered from the parent of the child.

(5) Any parent who ill-treats, neglects or abandons a child whom he is liable to maintain shall commit an offence.

6. Summons

(1) Where a claimant is, under any enactment, entitled to be maintained by any person, the Permanent Secretary may issue to that person a summons requiring him to pay every month to the Permanent Secretary for the benefit of the claimant such amount of money as the Permanent Secretary may decide to grant to the claimant under section 3(3).

(2) Where a person fails to comply with a summons issued under sub-section (1), the Permanent Secretary may, on behalf of the claimant, enter an action before the appropriate District Court for an order compelling that person to pay to the Permanent Secretary the amount of money specified in the summons issued under subsection (1) or such sum as the court may determine.

(3) Notwithstanding any other enactment, in any proceedings under this section, the onus of proving that a person is unable or not liable to pay the amount of money specified in a summons issued under subsection (1) shall lie upon him.

(4) Where the court makes an order under this section, the court may order payment with retrospective effect to the date on which it should have been made in compliance with any summons issued under subsection (1).

(5) Where the court makes an order under this section, the Permanent Secretary may by warrant under his hand in the form specified in the Second Schedule, attach in the hands of the employer of the person against whom the order is made one third of that person's remuneration or the sum awarded by the court, whichever is the lesser.

(6) An employer who receives an attachment under subsection (5) shall deduct from the remuneration of his employee the sum specified in the warrant and pay that sum to the Permanent Secretary.

(7) Where there is any change in the circumstances of the person on whom an order has been made under this section, the court may, on application by any interested party, vary the order.

7. Power to summon witnesses.

(1) The Permanent Secretary may in connection with the determination of any claim for social aid-by summons under his hand, require the attendance of any person at such time and place as may be specified in the summons; and
