

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Algeria	19 years Civil Code, 1975 Article40: Any adult having his mental faculties is fully capable for the exercise of his civil rights. The age of majority is 19years.
Angola	18 years Constitution of the Republic of Angola, 2010 Article 24: the age of majority shall be 18.
Benin	18 years Child Code, 2007 Article 459: the person of either sex who has not yet reached the age of eighteen (18) years is a minor.
Botswana	18years Interpretation Act (Amendment),2010 A person who attains the age of 18 assumes full legal capacity
Burkina Faso	20years Code on the Individual and the Family, 1989 Article 554: The minor is a person of either sex who has not yet reached the age of twenty years.

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Burundi	21 years Code on Persons and the Family, (Amendment1993) Article 335: a person who has attained the age of twenty-one years is a major.
Cameroon	21 years Initial State Party Report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child : Cameroon, 2000 In civil law, the age of majority is 21 years, according to Article 488 of the Civil Code (legal capacity, consent, medical counseling without parental consent, sexual consent). A minor may however, be emancipated by court order or automatically by marriage.
Cape Verde	18 years Civil Code, 1997 Article133 Minors: minors are persons who have not yet reached the age of eighteen.
Central African Republic	18years Initial State Party Report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Central African Republic, 1998 According to the draft Family Code, a minor is not empowered to perform a juridical act, and under article 214 “no person may contract marriage before the age of 18”. Consequently, he may not seek legal advice; in other words, consult a judge, lawyer, etc. before the age of 18. As regards civil liability, the minor cannot be held personally responsible for any damage he or she causes.

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

The African Child
Policy Forum

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Chad	18years Initial state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Chad, 1997 From a legal point of view, a minor or child is a human being under the age of 18.
Comoros	18 years Family Code, 2005 Article 123: anyone who has not attained the age of majority is considered to be a minor. The age of legal majority is fixed at eighteen Gregorian years. Initial state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Comoros, 1998 Three sets of laws are applied. ...1) The age of legal majority is therefore considered to be 14-15 years. (Under Muslim Law) 2) Article 6 of the Nationality Code stipulates that the age of legal majority is 21 3) According to the preliminary Family Code Bill, the age of legal majority is 18.
Congo Brazzaville	18 years Initial state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Congo Brazzaville, 2006 Under Article 318 of the Family Code, “anyone of either sex who has not reached the age of 18 is a minor”.
Cote d’Ivoire	21years Minority Act, 1970 Article 1:A minor is an individual of either sex who has not yet reached twenty-one years.

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Democratic Republic of Congo	18 years Constitution, 2005 Article 41: Every person who has not yet completed 18 years of age is a minor, without distinction on grounds of sex.
Djibouti	18years Family Code, 2002 Article 169: one who has not reached 18 years of age is considered a minor
Egypt	21 years Civil Code, 1948 Article 44: All persons attaining majority in possession of their mental faculties and not under legal disability, have full legal capacity to exercise their civil rights. The majority of a person is fixed at twenty one year's completed in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.
Equatorial Guinea	18years The Civil Code, 1889 Article 315: Older age begins at 18 years of age. The calculation of the years of the age of majority includes the day of birth.
Eritrea	18years Transitional Civil Code of Eritrea, 1962 Article. 198: Definition. A minor is a person of either sex who has not attained the full age of eighteen years.

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Ethiopia	18years The Revised Family Code, 2002 Article 215: A minor is a person of either sex who has not attained the full age of eighteen years.
Gabon	21years Civil Code, 1989 Article 492: A minor is an individual of the opposite sex who has not yet reached the age of 21
Gambia	18years Initial State Party Report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Gambia, 1999 (Electoral majority) The Constitution, which is the supreme law, states under section 39 (1) that: “Every citizen of the Gambia being of eighteen years or older and of sound mind shall have the right to vote for purposes of elections”.
Ghana	No age of majority Second Periodic report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Ghana, 2005 There is no clearly stipulated age of a majority in Ghana. The age for voting under the Constitution is eighteen. The age for making a will is eighteen years under the Wills Act 1971 (Act 360). The age at which a person can legally consume alcohol is eighteen, under the Liquor Licensing Act, 1970 (Act 331). The age for contractual liability under the Companies Code, 1963 (Act 179) is however twenty-one.

The African Child
Policy Forum

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Guinea	21 years Civil Code, 1889 Article 443: The majority is twenty-one years, at this age a person is capable of all acts of civil life.
Guinea-Bissau	18years Initial state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Guinea Bissau, 2000 Law No. 5/76 determines that “Any individual, either female or male, when he/she reaches 18 years, has full capacity to use his/her rights and to govern himself/herself and to dispose of his/her properties”
Kenya	18 years Constitution of Kenya, 2010 Article 260:Adult is a person that is above the age of 18 Age of Majority Act, 1977 Section 2 Age of majority: A person shall be of full age and cease to be under any disability by reason of age on attaining the age of eighteen years.
Lesotho	21years Initial state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Lesotho, 1998 The Age of Majority Ordinance (Ordinance No. 62 of 1829) stipulates the age of majority as 21 years.

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Liberia	18 years Combined 2nd, 3rd and 4th report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Liberia, 2009 Eighteen years, like in the Convention, is the age that Liberia’s statutory law generally uses to define a child. Exceptions to this position are in the Domestic Relations Act, which refers to a child as a person under the age of 21 and in the amended Inheritance Law. The new Children’s Law amends the Domestic Relations Act by replacing the words “twenty-one” with “eighteen” and substituting the word “minor” with “child”.
Libya	18 years Second state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Libya, 2000 Article 9 Act No. 17 of 1992 regulating the situation of minors: “The age of majority is 18 years.”
Madagascar	21 years Ordinance No. 62-011 on the General Provisions of Private Law,1962 Article15: The age of civil majority is 21
Malawi	21 years Citizenship Act, 1972 Article 1:Minor means a person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years;
Mali	18 years Code of Persons and the Family, 2011 Article 705:The majority is eighteen years of age. At this age, the person is capable of all acts of civil life.

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Mauritania	18 years Code of Obligations and Contracts, 1989 Article 15: Any adult who enjoyed sane mental faculties and is not prohibited, is fully capable for the exercise of his civil rights. The majority is eighteen years of age.
Mauritius	18years Civil Code, 1945 Article488:The majority is fixed at eighteen years, at this age a person is capable of all acts of civil life
Morocco	20 years Family Code, 2004 Article 209:The age of legal majority is eighteen complete Gregorian years.
Mozambique	18years Civil Code, 1966 Article122: Minor is a person who has not yet reached the age of eighteen years
Namibia	18years Age of Majority Act, 1972 Section 1: Every person attains the age of majority and ceases to be a minor on attaining the age of eighteen years.

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
Niger	21years Civil Code, 2005 Article 388:A minor is a person of either sex who has not reached the age of 21 years
Nigeria	18 years Child's Right Act,2003 Section 277: Age of majority means the age at which a person attains the age of 18 years
Rwanda	21years Nationality Law, 2008 Article 360: A minor is an individual of either sex who has not reached the age of 21 years.
Sao Tome & Principe	18 years Political Constitution of Sao Tome and Principe 1975 Article 57Right to suffrage: All citizens of more than eighteen years have the right of suffrage, excepting incompetence as provided in the general law. Initial State party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child, Sao Tome and Principe, 2003 In Sao Tome and Principe, every person of either sex who is under 18 years of age is a minor. The Constitution, the Act on elections, the Act on the family, the Act on labour and the Act on compulsory military service make express reference to the age of majority as 18.
Senegal	18years

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

The African Child
Policy Forum

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
	Family Code, 1989 Article 276: Minor is a person of either sex that has not yet attained the age of 18, and hence has not yet attained voting age or legal or civil maturity.
Seychelles	18 years Civil Code, 1976 Article 488: Majority shall be attained at the full age of eighteen years. At that age persons shall have full legal capacity.
Sierra Leone	21 years Second state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Sierra Leone, 2006 21 years of age for the Interpretation Act (1971, Act No. 8, which uses the word “infant” in reference to a child); 21 years for the Constitution of Sierra Leone (section 23 (3) of which provides security for “young persons” against publicity or labeling); 21 years for purposes of the Sierra Leone Citizenship Act (1973) (which refers to the “attainment of full age” by a citizen); 21 years for purposes of the old Education Act (1964, Act No. 63);
Somalia	15 years Juvenile Justice Law, 2007 (Republic of Somaliland) Article 1 definitions: Maturity means any human being who reached 15 years with the signs of maturity. Likewise, a mature person shall be whoever reaches the age of 18 years without the signs of maturity.
South Africa	18 years

Compiled by The African Child Policy Forum (ACPF) <http://www.africanchildforum.org> (December 2013). Please note that for all documents originally available in French, Portuguese and Spanish the translation in this table is not the official translation

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
	Child Act 2005 Article 17 Age of majority: A child, whether male or female, becomes a major upon reaching the age of 18 years.
South Sudan	18 years Nationality Law, 2011 Article 5 interpretation “Age of Maturity”:means eighteen years;
Sudan	18 years Nationality Act 2003 Section 3: “Minor” Means a person who has not attained the age of 18 years.
Swaziland	21 years Initial state party report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child:Swaziland, 2005 The Age of Majority Act (1853) stipulates the age of majority to be 21 years.
Tanzania	18 years Age of Majority Act, 1960 Section 2: Every person domiciled in Tanzania shall attain full age and cease to be under any disability of minority at the beginning of the eighteenth anniversary of the day on which he was born.
Togo	18 years

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
	Family Law, 1980 Article 265: A minor is an individual of either sex who has not yet reached the age of 21 years.
Tunisia	18years Law to unify the age of majority, 2010 Article 1: the words "twenty years" referred to in Articles 6 and 7 of the Code of Obligations and Contracts are replaced by "eighteen years". Article 2: the phrase "twenty years" referred to in Articles 153 and 157 of the Personal Status Code are replaced by "eighteen years" Personal Status Code, 1956 A person who has not reached the majority age of twenty years is considered a minor
Uganda	18 years Second State Party Report on the Convention on the Rights of the Child: Uganda, 2003 The age of majority in Uganda is 18 years
Zambia	18 years Intestate Succession Act, 1989 Section 3: "minor" means a person who has not attained the age of eighteen years;
Zimbabwe	18 years

COUNTRY	AGE OF MAJORITY
	The Legal Age of Majority Act 1982 Any Zimbabwean under the age of 18 years is a minor Children’s Act 1972 Article 2:“minor” means a person under the age of eighteen years;

References

ACPF (2012), Harmonisation of Children's Laws in West and Central Africa: County Briefs

ACPF (2012), Harmonisation of Children's Laws in Eastern and Southern Africa: Country Briefs

ACPF (2011), In the Best Interests of the Child: Harmonising Laws on Children in West and Central Africa available at <http://www.africanchildinfo.net>

ACPF (2008), In the Best Interests of the Child: Harmonising Laws on Children in Eastern and Southern Africa, available at <http://www.africanchildinfo.net>

ACPF (2010), Child Law Resources Volume I: International and Regional Laws on Children, http://www.africanchildforum.org/site/index.php/resource-centre/child-law-resources-volume-i-international-and-regional-legal-instruments-on-children.html#.Uh2_-X89UW4

ACPF (2012), Child Law Resources, Volume 2: Reporting Status of African States, available at <http://www.africanchildinfo.net/clr/vol2>